TELEPHONY

THE AMERICAN TELEPHONE JOURNAL

INDEX TO VOLUME 63

July 1, 1912, to January 1, 1913

TELEPHONY PUBLISHING COMPANY
MONADNOCK BLOCK
CHICAGO

A

Accounting, Interstate Commerce Commission confers with telephone men regarding, 15
Interstate plan, Wisconsin association's comment on, 726
Wisconsin commission's comment on Interstate plan, 556, 610, 658
Aerial cable plant, economics of, by Gerald Deakin, 333
Alberta, telephone progress in, 253
American Telephone & Telegraph Co. establishes pension fund of $10,000,000 for employes, 762 now has probably 50,000 stockholders, 226 system of, compiled by J. W. Bowen & Co., Boston, 648 will government, sue for dissolution of, 286 Anti-trust law—Frank B. Kellogg on Sherman law decisions, 414 radical amendments proposed to Sherman, 98 basis of ouster suit filed against Bell in Arkansas, 68 attorney general of Arkansas sues Bell under, 43
Anti-trust platforms of both parties, 1
Are we in trouble? by J. C. Kelsey, 131
Arkansas, attorney general of, sues Bell under anti-trust laws, 43 basis of ouster suit filed against Bell in, 68
Association, Canadian holds annual meeting, 790
Central Illinois and Peoria District, meet, 540
Eastern Traffic, holds annual convention, 971
Kansas holds annual meeting, 971
Mississippi, Tennessee and Alabama Independents meet, 41
National, convention set for February 18, 19 and 20, 887
National, to hold convention at La Salle (floor plans), 934
New Jersey, holds annual meeting, 40
Oklahoma, meets, 253
Service, its plans and aims, 954
Texas, meets at Dallas, 724
Western Pennsylvania, holds sixteenth quarterly meeting, 648
Automatic Electric Co. said optioned to Illinois Tunnel Co., 91
Automatic enunciators at Chicago water carnival, 246
Automobile, is the, economical in telephone work? 908

B

Bemis report, the, by J. C. Kelsey, 757
Betterments ordered by Ohio commission at Ottawa, 899 Buildings, the wiring of large, for telephone service, by Frederick L. Rhodes, 93, 133.
Business building, interesting talks about the science of, by A. F. Sheldon, 12, 137
Business troubles, by J. C. Kelsey, 891

C

Cable plant, aerial, economics of, Gerald Deakin, 333
Cable splicer's outfit—The tone testing set, by V. H. Dake, 858
Carnival, water, at Chicago, enunciators used at, 246
Central Home, of Louisville, changes in staff of, 164
Chicago Bell rates, abstract of report on, by Prof. Edward W. Bemis, 728, 776, 801, 836, 876
Bemis report issues on, 681
—Bemis report, by J. C. Kelsey, 757
Chicago Great Western Railroad, telegraphones on, by G. O. Perkins, 486
Chicago will not contest franchise of Independent company, 89
Christmas trade, cornering the retail, by telephone, by Felix J. Koch, 833
Citizens Telephone Co., of Grand Rapids, Mich.—Statement for year ended June 30, 1912, 379
Clerical work, the importance of systematizing, by Hugh Taylor, 310
Coil windings, determination of the size of magnet wire for, by A. B. Smith, 924

COMMISSIONS.
Arizona commission fixes Bell rates in state, 754
California commission authorizes merger at Pasadena, 43 imposes competition as penalty for dereliction, 87, 90 on high tension lines, 106, 380, 596
Illinois legislative committee declares for creation of state commission, 866
Interstate Commerce Commission confers with telephone men on accounting plan, 15
Maryland commission defers measured service, at Baltimore, 508 hears argument for flat rate in Baltimore, 381 hears zone rates at Baltimore discussed, 343
Massachusetts supreme court on power of commissions to limit issuance of securities, 61
Michigan commission approves Detroit merger, 243 authorizes merger at Ann Arbor, 342 hears demand for fair rates by competitor, 428 refuses certificate of public necessity and convenience, 331 rules on discrimination, at Dowagiac, 15
Nebraska commission issues report on telephones, 42
Nevada Railroad Commission criticizes Bell wages, 428
New Jersey commission rules on discrimination, 470 to standardize rates in state, 646
New York commission authorizes big merger in state, 865 prescribes rate regulations, 866 rules against discrimination, at Elmira, 43 will settle Buffalo rates, 169
Ohio commission—Constitutionality of public service act upheld, 332 on Hamilton Home interconnection case, 36, 168, 199, 308, 644 orders betterments at Ottawa, 899 refuses certificate of public convenience and necessity, 168 will not require par for all new securities, 168
Oklahoma commission's rate regulating power upheld by supreme court, 469
Oregon Railroad Commission now supervises all utilities, 794
Regulation of public utility companies by commission, by Hon. John H. Roemer 431
Wisconsin commission comments on Interstate accounting plan, 556, 610, 658 —Its relation to public utility companies, by J. N. Cadby, 289 orders rate increase, 909
Competition, Berkeley, Cal., writer comments on abolition of, in that city, 549 imposed as penalty for dereliction by California commission, 87, 90
Indianapolis fire an argument for, 239
Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, on, 87
Michigan commission refuses certificate of public convenience and necessity, 331
Oakland, Cal., paper comments on local elimination of, 549 principle of, sustained by United States Supreme Court, 794 Sioux City votes for, 509
some of the requirements for successful, by Frank L. Middleton, 605 Construction, telegraph, materials and methods, by R. E. Chetwood, 49 telephone, a practical gin wagon for, 205
Co-operation, need and value of, 921
Creosote, absorption of, by cell walls of wood, by Clyde H. Teesdale, 471
Cross arm testing to determine their strength, by Thomas R. C. Wilson, 52
Cuba, telephone expansion in, 128
Current, counter voltage resistance of an electrical, by A. B. Smith, 755

D

Detroit, court denies petition to enjoin merger at, 241 merger, grounds for injunction preventing, 272 merger, order of Michigan Commission approving, 243 Diaphragm, a study of the vibrations of the telephone, by Charles F. Meyer and J. B. Whitehead, 31, 73 motion, impedance of receivers as affected by, by A. E. Kennelly and G. W. Peirce, 467
Dictation of letters by telephone in Lord & Taylor's New York store, 422 Directory, telephone, the best advertising medium, by E. J. Hardy, 528
Discrimination, Michigan commission rules on, at Dowagiac, 15
New York commission rules against, at Elmira, 43 ruling on, by New Jersey Commission, 470
Don't stop at the start, by Herbert Kaufman, 932

E

Earnings, toll, how to avoid existing wage loss in, by W. S. Vivian, 768 Efficiency, co-operation as a factor in increase of, by John A. Beckstrom, 536 engineering, in telephone traffic work, by J. Lloyd Wayne, 603 personal, by Charles F. Loweth, 218 Election returns, distribution of, a good advertisement, 763 distributing by telephone, by M. D. Atwater, 721
El Paso (Ill.), how some business men solved the telephone question at, by John D. Holland, 803
El Paso (Tex.), Union Depot telephone and telegraph office, by Edward E. Backus, 3
English telephones—Arbitration proceedings affecting National system, 697 Exchange, modern methods of ventilating an, 639 management and care of a modern 2,000 line, by P. Kerr Higgins, 121
Experiences of the small town telephone manager's wife, by Mabel Graham Knipe, 966 Extension station for residence and business service, by W. W. Kinsley, Jr., 514

F

Fayette Home, of Lexington, Ky., buys out Bell, 753
For your consideration, by J. C. Kelsey, 251
Fort Dodge Telephone Company's new exchange building, by John D. Holland, 451
Foreign exchanges, from an American viewpoint, by Mrs. W. D. Baines, of Federal staff, 552
Furore transitoria, by J. C. Kelsey, 345

G

Geneva (N. Y.) Telephone Co. celebrates tenth anniversary, by John D. Holland, 99
Gin wagon, a practical, for telephone construction, 205 Going value of a public utility corporation, by Frank F. Fowle, 903, 927, 977 of public utilities, determination of, by Morris Knowles, C. E., 597
Gold, by J. C. Kelsey, 824
Government ownership, Cardinal Gibbons on, 413
—Public or private ownership, by John B. Miller, 506 receives blow in Manitoba, 67
Guanajuato, Mexico, modern exchange in, by Helge Rost, 551

H

Hamilton (Ohio) Home interconnection case appealed, 644 complaint dismissed, 308 courts will settle, 168 to be dismissed by Ohio Commission, 199
new development in, 36
Harmonic selective ringing and party line signaling, 975
Has the hour struck? by J. C. Kelsey, 295
High frequency, the propagation of, along wires, by John Stone Stone, 688, 731, 780, 810
High tension lines, answers to complaints regarding, filed with California commission, 380
California companies ask protection from, 106 hearing set in cases in California affecting, 596 relation between telephone and (Illinois and Iowa decisions), 417 telephone construction on poles, 135
Hot weather fancies, by J. C. Kelsey, 102
How is business? by J. C. Kelsey, 8

I

"Ideal" vs. "Universal" service, by J. C. Crowley, 297
Illinois legislative committee declares for establishment of commission, 863 opens hearings in Chicago, 795
Illinois Tunnel Co., Chicago will not contest franchise of, 89 said to have option on Automatic Electric Co., 91
some details of financing of, 128
Industrial incidents, Some, by J. C. Kelsey, 929
Information and complaint switchboard in Chicago, by J. M. Cooke, 173 Inspectors and troublemen, by A. E. Dobbs, 347, 396, 434, 540, 576, 609, 650, 702, 736, 782, 808, 844, 871, 910, 930, 964 Interconnection. See Hamilton (Ohio) case.

Interest to Commerce Commission confers with telephone men regarding accounting, 15
Inter-State, of Aurora, Ill., to spend $100,000, 398 out of receivers' hands, 66 reorganization of, 153, 163

J

Jacksonville, Fla., franchise granted in, 9
Home organization completed, 770
Metzner declares, will be built, 40.
Joint use of poles by public utility companies, 292

L

LaCrosse (Wis.) Telephone Co., annual statement for year ended June 30, 1912, 245
Last of the year, by J. C. Kelsey, 961
Leaks in telephone plants, stopping the, by H. M. Dixon, 304
Library for the telephone company, advantages of a, by A. B. Smith, 517
Lincoln (Neb.) company progressing toward unification of systems, by John D. Holland, 682
Loud speaking telephone, will the, supplant the ventriloquist? by Robert E. Savage, 889

M

Maintenance of telephone poles, pointers on, by H. P. Fairman, 391
Magnetism of permanent magnets, 79
Man who is a gentleman, the, by Herbert Kaufman, 963
Management, some rules for public utility, 197 and care of a modern 2,000 line exchange, by P. Kerr Higgins, 121
Manitoba, government ownership receives blow in report of, 67
Measured service deferred at Baltimore, 508
Merger authorized by commission in New York state, 865 commission authorizes, at Pasadena, Cal., 43 completed at Pasadena, Cal., 795
Detroit, action against, appealed, 507
Detroit, approved by Michigan commission, 200
Detroit, court denies petition to enjoin, 341
Detroit, grounds for injunction preventing, 272
Detroit, opposition to, withdraw, 168
Detroit, order of Michigan commission approving, 243
Michigan commission authorizes, at Ann Arbor, 342
Oakland, Cal., paper comments on, 240 permission given for, in Pasadena, Cal., 142
San Francisco, upheld by court, 826
Methods of treating telephone service troubles, by William J. McLaughlin, 522
Mexico, modern exchange in state of Guanajuato, in, by Helge Rost, 551
Michigan's standard operating rules and suggestions, 211, 263
Minnesota Iron Range Co. formed, with $300,000 capital, 753
Modern pace, the, by Herbert Kaufman, 890
Montana Independent Telephone Co., Butte, Mont., annual statement, year ended April 30, 1912, 11
More about the postal, by J. C. Kelsey, 79
Morgan policy in Ohio outlined by F. A. Lewis, 36
Motor truck, growth of use of, in telephone industry, 285
Municipal ownership—Cost of Seattle plant fixed at $3,000,000, 923 in Cleveland, discussion of, 503 move towards, in Cleveland, 597 plan for, at Cleveland, 596
—Public or private ownership, by John B. Miller, 566
—Seattle, Wash., votes tax allowance for city plant, 248
—Some data on Canadian plants, 339

N

National civic federation inquiry nearing completion, 895
Nature story, a, by J. C. Kelsey, 733
Nebraska commission report on telephones shows gain, 42
New light, by J. C. Kelsey, 209
New York state, merger in, authorized by commission, 865

O

Ohio public service act, constitutionality of, upheld, 332
Ohmmeter, how to make and use an, by A. L. Field, 224
One eternal possibility, by J. C. Kelsey, 861
Operating rules and suggestions, Michigan's standard, 211, 263
Operator, the, her physical condition and surroundings, 788 interesting psychological study of the, 139
Operators, training and selection of, 63
Oregon railroad commission now includes all utilities, 794
Overhead plant of a modern telephone system, by Sergius P. Grace, 155

P

Panama Canal, the telephone's part in the building of the, by W. F. Henkel, 955
Party line signaling and harmonic selective ringing, 975
Patent office commission reports to Congress, 965
Patents, present system of granting and protecting, by Max W. Zabel, 255
Peg counts, importance of, 680
Pennsylvania regulations pertaining to state roads, 559
People want facts, by J. C. Kelsey, 684
Pittsburgh Independent convention, formal call for, 968
Plan, floor, of El Paso, Ill., new exchange, 893
Plans of Ft. Dodge Telephone Company's new exchange, by John D. Holland, 461
Pole lines along the Rio Grande, difficulties of maintaining, 437 Pole preservation—Absorption of creosote by cell walls of wood, by Clyde H. Teesdale, 471 —Commercial creosote and protection of wood from decay, by C. P. Winslow, 936
London writer on, 393
—Tests of chestnut poles after five and eight years' service, by C. P. Winslow, 692 Poles, joint use of, by public utility companies, 292 kinks for small telephone companies in handling, by Percy P. Vyle, 241 pointers on the maintenance of telephone, by H. P. Fairman, 391 tests of concrete, 653
Postal, more about the, by J. C. Kelsey, 70
Post mortem affairs, by J. C. Kelsey, 165
Private branch exchange installations, some economics of, by John H. Finley, 821 Private branch exchange testing, some pointers in, by E. L. Lehman, 201
"Public convenience and necessity," Michigan commission refuses certificate of, 331
Ohio commission refuses franchise on ground of, 168
Public utilities, determination of going value of, by Morris Knowles, C. E., 597 going value of, by Frank Fowle, 903, 927, 977 public or private ownership of, by John B. Miller, 566 regulation of, by commission, by Hon. John H. Roemer, 431 relation between the public and the, by S. M. Douglass, 259 relation of the Wisconsin commission to, by J. N. Cadby, 289

Q

Question, a, by J. C. Kelsey, 38

R

Railway dispatching—Development of selective systems, by John A. Kick, 171 design of circuits for, by John A. Kick, 297, 385 installation of equipment in way stations, by John A. Kick, 656 maintenance of equipment for, by John A. Kick, 828 new West Shore circuit for, by C. S. Rhoads, Jr., 901
New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Railroad block installation, by C. S. Rhoads, Jr., 111 protection of equipment for, by John A. Kick, 739 system, Long Island Railroad, by C. S. Rhoads, Jr., 387 station installation for, by John A. Kick, 561
—Telephone development on the D. L. & W., by C. S. Rhoads, Jr., 829
—Telegraph superintendents meet at Chicago, 827
—Troublesome connections on telephone circuits, by John A. Kick, 982 Railway telephones, German, by Dr. Alfred Gradenwitz, 516
Railway, use of portable telephones in work of, by J. F. Caskey, 562 Rate fixing for electrical properties, by George L. Hoxie, 175 increase ordered by Wisconsin commission, 900 regulations prescribed by New York commission, 866 regulating power of commission upheld by Oklahoma supreme court, 469 Rates, application of cost principle to telephone, by W. F. Goodrich, 203 apportionment of, 228 argument for flat, in Baltimore, 381 based on telephone system as a whole, by H. O. Seymour, 126
Bemis report on Chicago, issues, 681
Bell, Arizona commission fixes, for state, 754 commission to standardize, in New Jersey, 646 lower, demanded in San Francisco, 342
Michigan company demands fair, by competing company, 428
New York commission will settle Buffalo, 169 proposed reduction of, in San Francisco, 765 relation between, and capital and value, 504 zone, discussed, at Baltimore, 343
Reasons and remedies, by J. C. Kelsey, 512
Receivers, impedance of, as affected by diaphragm motion, by A. E. Kennelly and G. W. Pierce, 467
Reflections, some, by J. C. Kelsey, 420
Reforming the other fellow, by J. C. Kelsey, 554 Resistance, counter voltage, of an electrical current, by A. B. Smith, 755
Rio Grande, difficulties of maintaining pole lines along the, 437
Roads, Pennsylvania regulations pertaining to state, 559
Rural community, successful telephone company in a, by L. C. Spake, 505
Rural telephone—How we built a home-owned line, by C. W. Meyers, 764

S

Salesmanship—Difficulty of getting good men, 503
—Selling telephone service, 250
some of the essentials of success in, by T. H. Bailey Whipple, 360
San Francisco Bay, placing a submarine telephone cable under, 789
Scrap book for TELEPHONY clippings, 771
Seattle municipal plant cost fixed by Frank B. Hall at $3,000,000, 923
Securities—Interest the small investor, 88
Ohio commission will not require par for all new, 168 power of commission to limit issue of, 61
Selling telephone service, 250
Service Association holds second meeting, 751, 759 committee of, on operating rules, meets, 724
Central States Telephone, formed, 593, 595
Service, "ideal" vs. "universal," by J. C. Crowley, Jr., 297
Service, selling telephone, 250
Service troubles, methods of treating, by William J. McLaughlin, 522
Stopping the leaks in telephone plants, by H. M. Dixon, 304
Stromberg-Carlson Telephone Mfg. Co. liquidation, 119, 125
Submarine cable, placing a, under San Francisco Bay, 789
Supervisor, duties of a, in a moderate size exchange, by Margaret E. McGee, 492
Switchboard man, the, 637

T

Telephone operators, the selection and training of, 63
Telephony, American, from an Englishman's viewpoint, by Arnold Bennett, 182
Telephony practical, for the practical exchange manager, by H. R. Van Deventer, 415, 474, 520, 557, 620, 654, 686, 741, 773, 796, 830, 867, 897, 931, 970
Telegraph line construction materials and methods, by R. E. Chetwood, 49, 77
Telegraph and telephone office in El Paso (Tex.) Union Depot, by Edward E. Backus, 3
Telegraphones on Chicago Great Western Railroad, by G. O. Perkins, 486
Testing cross arms to determine their strength, by Thomas R. C. Wilson, 52
Testing, some pointers in private branch exchange, by E. L. Lehman, 201
That fool, by Herbert Kaufman, 857
Toll earnings, how to avoid existing huge loss in, by W. S. Vivian, 768
Toll operating, a sidelight on, by Percy Redmond, 905 Traffic work, efficiency engineering in, by J. Lloyd Wayne, 603 efficiency in, 594
telephone, in New York, by R. H. Boggs, 423

Tri-State Telephone & Telegraph Co., St. Paul—Statement for half year ended June 30, 1912, 375
Troubleman, the, and his work, 720
Troubleman and inspector, by A. E. Dobbs, 347, 396, 434, 540, 576, 609, 650, 702, 736, 782, 808, 844, 871, 910, 933, 964
Two weeks after, by J. C. Kelsey, 791

U

"Universal" service vs. "Ideal" service, by J. C. Crowley, Jr., 297

V

Value, going, of a public utility corporation, by Frank F. Fowle, 903, 927, 977
Value, going, of public utilities, determination of, by Morris Knowles, C. E., 597
Ventilating telephone exchanges, modern methods of, 639
Ventriloquist, will loud speaking telephone supplant the? by Robert E. Savage, 889
Vibrations of telephone diaphragms, a study of, by Charles F. Meyer and J. B. Whitehead, 31, 73

W

Wages, Nevada Railroad Commission criticizes Bell, 428
We—the people, by J. C. Kelsey, 601
Which shall it be? by J. C. Kelsey, 464
Whose fault is it? by J. C. Kelsey, 381
Why is the telephone? by J. C. Kelsey, 642
Wiring of large buildings for telephone service, by Frederick L. Rhodes, 93, 133
Wisconsin commission's comment on Interstate accounting plan, 556, 610, 658
Wisconsin commission, the relation of, to public utilities, by J. N. Cadby, 289
Workmen's compensation act, in Ohio, a discussion, by B. O. Richey, 215

AUTHOR'S INDEX.

Atwater, M. D., Distributing national election returns by telephone, 721
Backus, Edward E., El Paso, Texas, Union Depot telephone and telegraph office, 3
Beckstrom, John A., Co-operation as a factor in increase of efficiency, 536
Bemis, Prof. Edward W., Abstract of report on situation of Chicago Bell, 728, 776, 801, 836, 876
Bennett, Arnold, American telephony from an Englishman's viewpoint, 182
Boggs, R. H., Points of interest in telephone traffic work in New York, 423
Cadby, J. N., Relation of the Wisconsin commission to public utilities, 289
Caskey, J. F., The use of portable telephones in railroad work, 562
Chetwood, R. E., Telegraph line construction, materials and methods, 49, 77
Cooke, J. M., The Chicago information and complaint switchboard, 173
Crowley, J. C., Jr., "Ideal" service vs. "universal" service, 297
Dake, V. H., The cable splicer's testing outfit—The tone testing set, 858
Deakin, Gerald, The economics of the aerial cable plant, 333
Dixon, H. M., Stopping the leaks in telephone plants, 304
Dobbs, A. E., The telephone inspector and the troubleman, 347, 396, 434, 540, 576, 609, 650, 702, 736, 782, 808, 844, 871, 910, 939, 964
Douglass, S. M., The relations between the public and the public utility, 259
Fairman, H. P., Pointers on the maintenance of telephone poles, 391
Field, A. L., How to make and use an ohmmeter, 224
Finley, John H., Some economics of private branch exchange installations, 821
Fowle, Frank F., Going value of a public utility corporation, 903, 927, 977
Grace, Sergius P., The overhead plant of a modern telephone system, 155
Gradenwitz, Dr. Alfred, German railway telephones, 516
Goodrich, W. F., Application of cost principle to telephone rates, 203
Hardy, E. J., Telephone directory the best advertising medium, 528
Henkel, W. F., The telephone's part in the building of the Panama Canal, 955
Higgins, P. Kerr, Management and care of a modern 2,000 line exchange, 121
Holland, John D., Ft. Dodge Telephone Company's new exchange building, 461
Geneva (N. Y.) Telephone Co. celebrates tenth anniversary, 99
How some business men solved the telephone question, at El Paso, Ill., 893
Lincoln (Neb.) company progressing toward unification of systems, 682
Hoxie, George L., Some features of rate fixing for electrical properties, 175
Kaufman, Herbert, Don't stop at the start, 933
Man who is a gentleman, the, 963
Modern pace, the, 890
That fool, 857
Kelsey, J. C., Are we in trouble? 131
Bemis report, the, 757
Business troubles, 891
For your consideration, 251
Furore transitoria, 345
Gold, 824
Has the hour struck? 295
Hot weather fancies, some, 102
How is business? 8
Industrial incidents, some, 929
Last of the year, the, 961
More about the Postal, 70
Nature story, a, 733
New light, some, 209
One eternal possibility, 861
People want facts, 684
Post mortem affairs, some, 165
Question, a, 58
Reasons and remedies, 512
Reflections, some, 420
Reforming the other fellow, 554
Two weeks after, 791
We—the people, 601
Which shall it be? 464
Whose fault is it? 381
Why is the telephone? 642
Kennelly, A. E. (and G. W. Pierce), Impedance of receivers as affected by diaphragm motion, 467
Kick, J. A., Development of selective systems for railway dispatching, 171
Design of dispatching, circuit, 299, 385
Distributing of material and equipment, 484
Installation of dispatching equipment in way stations, 656
Installation of the dispatcher's station, 561
Line cables and twisted pairs, 902
Maintenance of railroad telephone equipment, 828
Protection of dispatching equipment, 739
Troublesome connections on telephone circuits, 982
Kinsley, Jr., W. W., Extension station for residence and business service, 514
Knipe, Mabel Graham, Experiences of the small town telephone manager's wife, 966
Knowles, Morris, C. E., Determination of going value of public utilities, 597
Koch, Felix J., Cornering the retail Christmas trade by telephone, 833
Lehman, E. L., Some pointers in private branch exchange testing, 201
Loweth, Charles F., Personal efficiency, 218
Miller, John B., Public or private ownership of public utilities, 566
Middleton, Frank L., Some of the requirements for successful competition, 605
Meyer, Charles F. & J. B. Whitehead, A study of the vibrations of telephone diaphragms, 31, 73
Meyers, C. W., How we built a home-owned rural telephone line, 764
McGee, Margaret E., My duties as a supervisor in a moderate size exchange, 492
McLaughlin, William J., Methods of treating various telephone service troubles, 522
Perkins, G. O., Telegraphones on Chicago Great Western Railroad, 486
Pierce, G. W. (and A. E. Kennelly), Impedance of receivers as affected by diaphragm motion, 467
Redmond, Percy, A sidelight on toll operating, 905
Richey, B. O., A discussion of workmen's compensation act in Ohio, 215
Rhoads, C. S., Jr., Long Island telephone train dispatching system, 387
New West Shore dispatching circuit, a, 901
New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Railroad block installation, 111
Telephone development on the D. L. & W., 829
Rhodes, Frederick L., The wiring of large buildings for telephone service, 93, 133
Roemer, Hon. John H., Regulation of public utility companies by commission, 431
Rost, Helge, Modern exchange in state of Guanajuato, Mexico, 551
Savage, Robert E., Will the loud speaking telephone supplant the ventriloquist? 889
Seymour, H. O., Fixing of rates based on telephone system as a whole, 126
Sheldon, A. F., Interesting talks about the science of business building, 12, 137
Smith, A. B., Advantages of a library for the telephone company, 517
Counter voltage resistance of an electrical current, 755
Determination of the size of magnet wire for coil windings, 924
Spake, L. C., Successful telephone company in a rural community, 505
Stone, John Stone, Propagation of high frequency along wires, 688, 731, 780, 810
Taylor, Hugh, The importance of systematizing clerical work, 310
Teesdale, Clyde H., Absorption of creosote by cell walls of wood, 471
Van Deventer, H. R., Practical telephony for the practical exchange manager, 415, 474, 520, 557, 620, 654, 686, 741, 773, 796, 839, 867, 897, 931, 970
Vivian, W. S., How to avoid existing huge loss in toll earnings, 768
Wayne, Lloyd J., Efficiency engineering in telephone traffic work, 603
Whipple, T. H. Bailey, Some of the essentials of success in salesmanship, 360 Whitehead, J. B., and Charles F. Meyer, A study of the vibrations of telephone diaphragms, 31, 73
Wilson, Thomas R. C., Testing cross arms to determine their strength, 52
Winslow, C. P., Commercial creosote and protection of wood from decay, 936
Condition of treated chestnut poles after five and eight years' service, 692
Vyle, Percy P., Kinks for small telephone companies in handling poles, 241
Zabel, Max W., Present system of granting patents and protecting them, 255